

Remembrances of war

Dick Selby/Press-Tribune

The reconnaissance platoon for the 11th Airborne Division that fought in World War II gathered at the Warhawk Air Museum in Caldwell on Saturday to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the members' enlistment. Reminiscing among the old aircraft are, from left, Ray Maurns of Los Angeles, Terry Santos of San Francisco and Glenn Harris of Nampa. Members of the platoon have been decorated with many medals and honors for their wartime heroics.
